

Badly
DIRECTOR

The German directing team Badly! founded in summer 2007 consists of Markus Bader and Li Wolfgang Schiffer.

Markus Bader is a former architect with ten years of experience in the field commercial directing.

Li Schiffer, a trained media designer, graduated in film directing at the famous Filmakademie Baden Württemberg just before he joined the team.

Combining the creative and academic background Badly! brings a highly professional attitude and fresh approach to each project.

Since the founding of the duo, Badly! was nominated for different national and international awards, e.g. the Young Director Award in Cannes and the VDW in Germany.
